

SAFETY HAPPENS LLC

Capability Statement

“Safety Happens If You Make It Happen.” · Workplace Safety Training & Keynote Speaking

Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB, pending) · U.S. Navy Veteran-Owned

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Safety Happens LLC delivers high-impact workplace safety training, keynotes, and culture-change workshops built on lived experience. Founder Michael Lammey, a U.S. Navy veteran, was burned over 56% of his body in a 2006 boiler explosion aboard the USS Frank Cable — an incident caused not by a violated protocol, but by complacency. Since 2012, he has helped military, shipyard, and industrial teams recognize and eliminate the everyday risks that routine hides.

CORE COMPETENCIES

- Safety keynote presentations (in-person & virtual)
- “The Complacency Gap” half- and full-day workshops
- OSHA 10 & 30-Hour compliance training
- Safety culture & leadership engagement programs
- Hazard identification & near-miss reporting
- Egress / confined-space awareness (maritime & industrial)

DIFFERENTIATORS

- Firsthand survivor credibility — 56% burns, 56+ surgeries, mission-driven message
- Decorated U.S. Navy veteran; deep DoD & shipyard fluency
- Proven with federal audiences (NASA, Naval shipyards)
- Documentary subject (“Lammey’s Purpose”) — memorable, high-retention delivery
